uled castes and the Scheduled Tribes shall be taken into consideration'... Job reservation is preserved in more systematic manner by the letter of Article 335 or the more effective Article 46 which directs the state to promote with special care the educational and economic interests of the weaker sections of the society. The specific quotas for the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes for appointment as well as promotion is a pursuit of preserving equality in academic institutions.

A government committed to democracy must evolve society relevant employment policy. Today the job reservation is supported by different Political parties. We can not expect the centre of higher education to remain insulated from the influence of political parties. The Indian Universities have provided the background that make easy for talented students to overcome disadvantages of their social background.
