Notice For Students of UG and PG (Statistics and Biostatistics) Lucknow University

Dear Students,

As per decision of our honourable Vice Chancellor we shall be conducting online classes for our students and sharing the content through emails and LU website from the safety of our homes. I have already started the classes online but some students could not turn up , may be due to lack of information, so please circulate this information to all your classmates. You may attend the classes on Zoom App as per following schedule:

B.Sc./B.A. Sem II Probability Distributions: Mon & Tue at 1.00 PM

M.A./M.Sc. Sem IV Statistics: Wed and Thursday at 1.00 PM

M.A./M.Sc. Sem IV Biostatistics (Elective): Fri & Sat at 1.00 PM

Please share your details so that if you are unable to attend online classes due to connectivity or other important issue we can share the content on your personal emails and drop the messages and information on your phones and reach you as per need:

Name, Class, Department, Mobile Number, Email id, Address

In the meantime, if possible you may join some relevant add-on courses online to utilize your time. Please also submit your assignments online. Please feel free to contact me for any further queries ,clarifications or assistance .

Stay Home, Stay Safe

Sincerely yours
Sheela Misra
