

Lt Col Anjani Kumar Mishra (Retd), was commissioned into the Indian Army on 09 Dec. 1995. The officer served across the length and breadth of the country in the 24 years of colour service. During the army service, the officer has served in all terrains and climatic conditions, including High Attitude, cold climate and Deserts. The officer has also served as a principal staff officer in United Nation Peace keeping force. The officer is an alumnus of Lucknow University, Military School Belgaum and Defence Service Staff college. The officer has assumed the appointment of Controller of Examination at Lucknow University w.e.f. 20 September 2019.

3
24/9/19