GUIDE MAP UNIVERSITY OF LUCKNOW

OUR VISION

To be a leading Institution of higher learning in pursuit of academic and professional excellence

University of Lucknow : An Overview

University of Lucknow is one of the premier public state universities of the country. It is situated on the bank of the river Gomti. Founded on November 25, 1920, it stands as one of India's oldest and most esteemed institutions of higher learning. The University of Lucknow operates primarily from two campuses: the main campus at Badshah Bagh, which houses most of its academic and administrative functions, and a newer campus in Jankipuram, established to accommodate growing student numbers and modern facilities. The Badshah Bagh campus is particularly iconic, blending historical architecture with academic vibrancy. Its red-brick buildings and sprawling lawns reflect a rich heritage, while its libraries, laboratories, and lecture halls support a dynamic learning environment.

Academically, Lucknow University offers an extensive array of programs, including undergraduate, postgraduate, and doctoral degrees across multiple faculties, viz. Arts, Commerce, Education, Law, Science, Agriculture, Fine Arts, Management Studies, Engineering & Technology, Yoga & Alternative Medicine, Abhinavgupt Institute of Aesthetics & Shaiva Philosophy, Ayurveda and Unani. There are 51 departments and 16 specialized institutes/centers. The university's library system, notably the Tagore Library, is one of the largest and oldest in North India, housing over 5 lakh books, rare manuscripts, and digital resources.

The strength of students in the campus of the University of Lucknow is around 22000. The University has a total of 565 affiliated colleges. A total of around 3,75,000 students are enrolled in affiliated colleges in different undergraduate and postgraduate courses.

It is recognized by the University Grants Commission (UGC) as a Category I university and has been accredited with an 'A++' grade by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC), reflecting its commitment to quality education. It also figures in NIRF Top 100 universities and is ranked 32 amongst public funded state universities.

Lucknow University has a rich legacy of notable alumni and faculty, including former Indian President Shankar Dayal Sharma, poet Harivansh Rai Bachchan, and several prominent politicians, jurists and academics. It has historically been a hub of intellectual and cultural activity, fostering debates, discussions and innovative thinking among scholars across disciplines.
