

A word after a word after a word is power.

On this International Women's Day we are celebrating YOU.
University of Lucknow invites all of you to share your stories of struggles, survival and success.

SILENT VOICES is an initiative of Gender Sensitization (GENSEN) Cell of University of Lucknow. Through this initiative we encourage women students and faculty to pen down their stories/poems of struggle, how they stood up for themselves or how other women in their hard times fought against the odds, won their battles becoming SHE-HEROES.

We invite you to give voice to your unheard, untold inspirational stories to inspire others. Let the world know you and your power.

Lets join hands and speak up and bring the change by doing our bit.
