

Convocation Week Celebrations

Department of English and Modern
European Languages, Happy Thinking
Laboratory and Counselling and
Guidance Cell, University of Lucknow

Mono Act Competition

12th SEPTEMBER, 2024
02:30 PM

Scan here to Register

Venue:
Seminar Hall, Department Of English
And Modern European Languages
University of Lucknow

Event Report: Mono Act Competition

As part of the ongoing cultural festivities at the University of Lucknow, a highly anticipated mono act competition was held, showcasing the immense talent and creativity of the participants. The event provided a platform for students to express social issues and personal experiences through the art of solo performance.

The highlight of the competition was a powerful act by Fauzia Ambari, who bravely brought the sensitive issue of rape to the stage. Her emotive performance captivated the audience, shedding light on the traumatic experiences of survivors. The intensity and realism with which she portrayed the subject left the entire hall in silence, followed by a wave of applause. Fauzia's act not only raised awareness but also evoked strong emotions, giving goosebumps to those present.

Each participant brought their unique flair to the competition, exploring various themes through compelling storytelling, emotional expression, and dramatic flair. However, Fauzia's impactful performance stood out for its courageous approach and thought-provoking narrative.

The event concluded with the announcement of winners, though it was clear that the true achievement was the powerful connection forged between the performers and the audience. The competition was a success, demonstrating the power of theater to address pressing societal issues and leave a lasting impact.

