The primary goal of this event was to promote mental fitness and well-being among university students and faculty. By offering free Biowell testing, participants were encouraged to gain insights into their mental health and overall well-being.

Professor Arvind Mohan emphasized the importance of mental fitness in today's fast-paced world during the "A Step towards Mental Fitness" camp. He highlighted how mental health significantly impacts academic performance and overall well-being. He encouraged participants to take proactive steps towards understanding their mental health, fostering a supportive community, and utilizing available resources. Professor Mohan urged everyone to prioritize self-care and seek help when needed; reinforcing that mental fitness is a vital component of personal and academic success.

Dr. Anamika Mishra expressed her appreciation for the "A Step towards Mental Fitness" camp, highlighting its crucial role in raising awareness about mental health. She emphasized the importance of early intervention and accessible resources for mental well-being. Dr. Mishra encouraged participants to engage actively in discussions and utilize the Biowell testing to better understand their mental fitness. She reiterated that prioritizing mental health is essential for a healthier, more resilient community.

Prof. M. Priyadarshini, Director of HTL emphasized the importance of our mental fitness, highlighting the need for mental health awareness in educational settings. She encouraged participants to embrace the resources offered, engage in self-reflection, and prioritize their mental well-being for a healthier and more fulfilling academic experience. The free Biowell camp provided participants with insights into their mental and physical health, promoting awareness and understanding of mental fitness through personalized assessments and valuable resources for improvement.

Dr. Vaishali Saxena, Director, Counselling and Guidance Cell delivered the vote of thanks at the event, expressing heartfelt gratitude to Honorable Vice Chancellor Prof. Alok Kumar Rai Sir, chief guest Prof. Arvind Mohan, special guest Dr. Anamika Mishra, Head of the Department of English and Modern European Languages Prof. M.
