

DEBSOC'S SYMPOSIUM, ABHIVYAKTI CLUB - SANSKRITIKI

- Thursday, June 1st 2023, an On – Campus Parliamentary Debate session was organised by the Debating Society of The University of Lucknow (Abhivyakti club, Sanskritiki) at the DPA auditorium, Department of Public Administration, under the guardianship of Prof. Madhurima Lal, Director Sanskritiki. The event was commenced by Prof. Madhurima enlightening students on the relevance of cultural activities in the University. This was followed by students debating on “The rise of entrepreneurs selling off their businesses to large corporations”. The speakers presented strong arguments from either side, with the opposition winning by a close margin.

- Esteemed Professors, Research Scholars and students from different departments attended the event and showcased their participation by a heated round of cross questioning. The entire session was hosted by Parth Srivastava (President), Swayam Jaiswal (General Secretary) and Akshat Jain (PR) of the Debating Society. The evaluation of speakers was done by the Scholars; Mr. Siddique and Mrs. Shivangi Gautam from the Department of English and MEL. Among the guest speakers were Prof. Alok, from the Central University of Karnataka and Dr. Vineet Maxwell David, Department of English and MEL who shed light upon the importance of debating in an institution.

- The event concluded by declaration of the result where Anshika (Leader of Opposition) bagged the first position, followed by a tie between Gauri Srivastava (Deputy Leader of Opposition) and Nishant Kumar (Deputy Prime Minister) while the second runner up was Anshika Singh (Prime Minister).
