

Amongst the revolutionaries engaged in the fight for freedom some have left searing a mark in the minds of Indians and have been responsible for turning the spark of revolution into a raging fight for the freedom of India, the name of Chandra Shekhar 'Azad' is etched forever. The birth centenary of this great personality was celebrated in an appropriately austere manner by offering floral tributes and remembering his stellar contributions towards attainment of independence.

The Honourable Vice-Chancellor of the University of Lucknow, Prof. Alok Kumar Rai garlanded the magnificent statue of Sri Chandrashekhar Azad near Malviya Hall and later proceeded to offer floral tributes to the statue of the great revolutionary situated in Chandra Shekhar Azad Hostel in the campus. Prof. A.K. Rai toured the campus and recounted several incidents related to the life of Azad and his contributions to India's freedom struggle.
