About Counselling & Guidance Cell

The Counselling and Guidance Cell, University of Lucknow is committed to focus on mental health and holistic development, the cell provides psychotherapy and counseling services to address various student issues, ranging from anxiety to complex emotions. Simultaneously, it supports students in making well-informed educational and occupational choices. By fostering a proactive approach to mental well-being and career development, the cell ensures that students are equipped to thrive in the transformative landscape of higher education under the new policy of NEP 2020.

About Happy Thinking Laboratory

The Happy Thinking Laboratory addresses the shift from misery studies to happiness studies, emphasizing an indigenous approach to achieve happiness within the cultural context. It recognizes the limitations of Western concepts in Indian culture and aims to empower youth to understand the indigenous notion of happiness, connecting science with spirituality. The laboratory's vision is to build a world of peace, love, and universal harmony by fostering an understanding of happiness. Through reflection, meditation, and spiritual concepts, the laboratory aims to enable students to gain control over their thoughts and emotions, promoting holistic development and providing a platform for research on spiritual dimensions of life.

About HR Conclave

The HR Conclave, orchestrated by the Counselling and Guidance Cell (CGC) and the Happy Thinking Laboratory (HTL), will provide an invaluable forum for students and academicians. Esteemed industrialists and HR experts from diverse MNCs will share their rich experiences, fostering collaboration and knowledge exchange. Attendees will gain insights into evolving HR trends, leadership strategies, and the industry's pulse. The conclave will facilitate meaningful interactions, offering a bridge between academia and the corporate world. This convergence of expertise aims to equip students and academicians with practical wisdom, ensuring a seamless integration between theoretical knowledge and the dynamic demands of the professional landscape.

Sub-themes of HR Conclave:

- Navigating HR Horizons: Delve into the evolving landscape of Human Resources, exploring strategies and trends that shape the future of workforce management.
- Leadership in Action: Highlight leadership insights shared by industrialists, showcasing practical examples of effective leadership in dynamic corporate environments.
- Collaborative Learning: Emphasize the collaborative nature of the conclave, where students and academicians actively engage with industry professionals, fostering a community of shared knowledge.
- Innovation in HR Practices: Explore innovative HR practices discussed during the conclave, illustrating how forward-thinking strategies contribute to organizational success.
- Career Pathways Unveiled: Illuminate diverse career pathways within HR, providing attendees with a roadmap for personal and professional growth in the field.
- Cultural Integration: Showcase how the conclave promotes a cultural exchange between academia and industry, contributing to a harmonious blend of theoretical and practical knowledge.
- Empowering Academic Synergy: Highlight how the conclave's insights empower academic institutions to align their curriculum with the ever-changing demands of the corporate sector.
