LUCKNOW: A 100-ft-long light tunnel will be part of the Shri Krishna Janmashtami celebrations in New Ganeshganj on Monday. Apart from this, temples and other institutions have also planned extensive decorations to mark the festival.

The celebrations in New Ganeshganj will continue for a week with different cultural programmes organized daily. "A school wali holi, digital panki, selfie point with Rover cars, 20 ft Shivlinga and a replica of Lord Ram's idol in Ayodhya will be part of the celebrations," said an organizer Anurag Mittal.

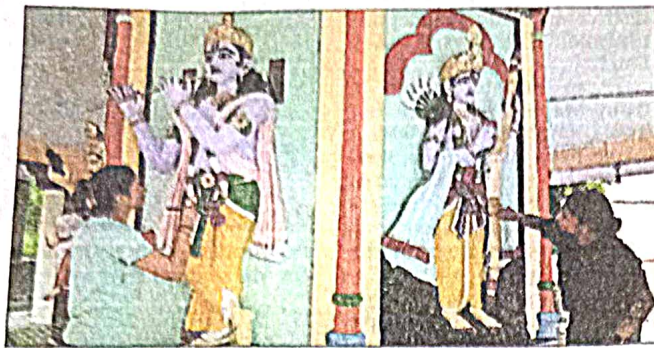

At the International Society Krishna Consciousness (ISKCON) the programmes will begin from 4.30 am onwards.

The main highlight of the celebration will be abhishek of the idols with milk, curd and water. The 1008 pilgrimages which are organized from 12 noon onwards.

Cultural programmes will be held from 5pm onwards. A 'Kon Banega Krishna' competition will also be organized as part of the programme.

The temple president Aparna Shyam Das. Nandotsava will be held on Tuesday. A day-long Ramakrishna Math bhajan from 4am onwards, including bhajans, readings, dance performances, said Swami Mukti Ananda, Adhyaksha, Rama Math, Lucknow.

A tableau made from balloons will be decorated at the Ram Temple. A bhajan competition will be held from 7 pm onwards. At Hari Sabha temple in Ganjanj, the puja will be held from 11pm to 12 midnight. "Puja followed by prasad distribution will start from 11am onwards," said Basudev Prasad, president of the temple. Pradeep Paramanand, a priest Tarak Nath said hundreds of devotees have been visiting the temple to participate in it. Community participation are main feature of the Janmashtami celebrations at this temple.

At the Reserve Police Lines, a tableau depicting the birth of Lord Krishna will be set up. There will be cultural programmes by school students and Mathura-based artistes from 7pm onwards. The temple in the Reserve Police Lines has been decorated with flowers and lights.

At PAC headquarters in Mahanagar, besides a tableau and performances by school students and artistes, the youngest child will be dressed as Krishna and will be carried in a palanquin.

The temple complex of Radha Madhav Mandir in Daliganj will be decorated with balloons and LED lights. "Krishna Leela, dance drama, Sufi bhajan will be performed by children and artistes from 7pm onwards. This year, we have brought clothing from Varanasi along with a silver crown for the idols," said a member of the temple managing committee Anurag Sahu. Janmashtami falls on the eighth day of the dark fortnight of Bhadrapada as per the Hindu calendar. It marks the birth of Lord Shri Krishna.

Brisk trade in jewellery markets

Lucknow: The jewellery markets also continued to do brisk business ahead of Shri Krishna Janmashtami falling on Monday. From idols made of precious metals to flutes, swings and crowns, many items were sold for Rs 400-1 lakh in the market.

The cost of 10gms of gold and 1kg silver until filing of this report on Saturday was Rs 73800 and Rs 87000 respectively.

"This time, a 3-inch-tall Lord Krishna idol made of 2 gms of 24 carat gold was among the top selling products for the festival. They are available at a cost of Rs 15000. Besides, silver jewellery for the deity cost around Rs. 2000-5000, flute costing about Rs 3000 and a silver swing are available for Rs 6000-80000," said a jeweller in Chowk Sarrafa (jewellery) market Amrit Jain.
