University of Lucknow Hosts Successful Event "Vasudha Swachhata Aur Hum"

On April 22, 2024, the University of Lucknow's Counselling and Guidance Cell, Happy Thinking Lab and department of modern European language orchestrated a memorable event titled "Vasudha Swachhata Aur Hum" to mark Earth Day. The event, held within the university premises, aimed to instill environmental consciousness and promote sustainable practices among students, educators, and community members alike.

The event commenced with a gracious welcome extended to the esteemed guests by Prof. Matrayi Priyadarshini and Dr. Vaishali Saxena, underscoring the significance of environmental stewardship in contemporary society. Gopal Upadhyaya from Lok Bharti then initiated an engaging dialogue, shedding light on nature's intricacies, traditional wisdom, and the imperative of biodiversity preservation.

A notable highlight of the occasion was the presence of Brijendra Pal Singh, Rashtriya Sangathan Mantri of Lok Bharti, who graced the event as the chief guest. Singh delivered an impassioned address, advocating for urgent measures toward environmental sustainability and urging attendees to adopt a holistic perspective on nature conservation. He eloquently expounded upon the timeless principle of "Vasudev Kutumbakam," emphasizing the interconnectedness of all life forms and the collective responsibility to safeguard the planet.

Central to the event was an exhibition showcasing innovative creations crafted from recycled materials by more than 50 students from diverse departments and colleges. These displays served as tangible manifestations of the students' ingenuity and dedication to addressing environmental challenges through creative means.

Distinguished educators, including Dr. Archana Tiwari, Dr. Ansh, Dr. Vipin Pandey, Dr. Tanuka Chatterjee, and Dr. Utkarsh Mishra, provided valuable insights and commendations on the projects presented.

In his closing remarks, Dr. Utkarsh Mishra extended heartfelt gratitude to all participants, guests, and organizers for their collaborative efforts in ensuring the event's success. As a gesture of appreciation, special guests Brijendra Pal Singh and Gopal Upadhyaya presented each participant with exquisite jute bags, symbolizing the ethos of sustainable living.

The "Vasudha Swachhata Aur Hum" event served as a dynamic platform for fostering meaningful dialogue, showcasing creative endeavors, and catalyzing collective action toward a cleaner, greener future. It exemplified the University of Lucknow's unwavering commitment to cultivating environmental awareness and nurturing a culture of sustainability within its academic community and broader society.
