16. Multidisciplinary / interdisciplinary

Since the times of Kautilya, Banbhatt, Aristotle and others, Multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary learning has been used in education system in India. Human values. Ethics, culture gives education a new dimension and make our education competitive and comparative with the best education system of the world. However, under the British colonial rule when Lord Macaulay initiated educational reforms in the country, then education moved from ancient methods of learning to commercial pattern of learning and our country followed this pattern since last many decades. When the government announced National Education Policy (NEP) 2020, then the academics saw a paradigm shift in teaching learning process and we understood that a student cannot get a wholistic view of education, unless he moves out of the comfort zone and start understanding different subjects which are offered to him/her under multidisciplinary section. In this light the University of Lucknow became the first University in the country to adopt NEP 2020 and implemented it from its academic session 2021-2022. The students are offered various subjects which have interdepartmental credits. To name a few, Department of Applied Economics is offering Business Environment and Department of Economics is offering 'Indian Economy', 'Fundamentals of Electronic Communication' by Department of Physics, 'Public Legal Education, Programme Media and Media Information Literacy' by Department of Social Work and so on . In this way, students will get to study the subjects of their choice and excel in them. Therefore, when the University announced that it is going to adopt NEP 2020 in the new session there has been an increase in the enrolment number of students from 14998 in 2019-2020 to 16365 in 2020-2021. So this is new India, new education system and the University of Lucknow is committed to give its students a competitive environment in terms of teaching and learning.

17. Academic bank of credits (ABC):

The academic bank credit has been prepared by the U.P. government and University of Lucknow has already been in discussions with the higher education department to understand how this credit transfer system may be adopted by the institution and how the students will be benefitted from it. The University has been pioneer institution in the country to adopt the National Educational Policy 2020 and with Choice Based Credit System under which any student has to do 04 semesters of 24 credits. After getting two semesters i.e. 48 credits in his academic credit bank, a student can take PG Diploma. Not only this if he wants to come again in the next three years, after getting the rest of the credits, he can get a degree in PG. This system offers flexibility, as the student, apart from the core courses, has a choice in selecting courses (as electives, relevant to the programme of study and as per the programme structure) out of those offered by other /Departments/Disciplines. The aim is to provide students to undertake inter-disciplinary courses (as electives). Interdisciplinary approach enables integration of concepts, theories, techniques, and perspectives from two or more disciplines to advance fundamental understanding or to solve problems whose solutions are beyond the scope of a single discipline.

18.Skill development:

Skills and knowledge are the driving forces of economic growth and social development for any country. The University of Lucknow through its various programmes, and Choice based credit system has integrated courses to develop skills amongst the students and making the programmes employable. Courses like Disaster Management, Public health and epidemiology, Environmental Economics, Industrial Geography, Gender Economics, Community Health Management, Airlines operations so on and so forth are designed to cultivate specific skills amongst the students so as to make them employable in the job market. The University of Lucknow has an entrepreneur development cell ,Skill development cell, and Campus Placement Cell to assist the students in developing entrepreneurial skills and placements.

19.Appropriate integration of Indian Knowledge system (teaching in Indian Language, culture, using online course)

The University of Lucknow has been a premier institute with its Motto "Light and Learning". The mission of the University is, to be a University driven by values enriched with diverse cultures, to promote economic, social and spiritual advancement for an egalitarian society which is also reflected in NEP 2020 para 4.27 and 22.2. Modern world is often blamed for degrading social and ethical traits in personal and professional lives. The aim of the education should be to develop an understanding to respect diversity and cultural differences and developed through creating an ability to respect diverse cultural perspectives and University of Lucknow is committed to encourage the multiculturalism through its array of courses. History of Oriental Studies in Arabic and Persian is older than the history of University of Lucknow itself, as this department was established in the Canning College in 1864. The department of Oriental Studies in Sanskrit was founded in 1864 for the teaching through Classical Sanskrit for traditional and culture education to preserve the India culture. In 1922 this Oriental Studies in Arabic and Persian also got merged in the University of Lucknow. University teaches different languages like Urdu, Tamil, French and has a full fledged department of Linguistics. The University has a vibrant cultural cell 'Sanskritiki' which has been organizing cultural events involving students and teachers to promote integrity, inclusiveness and assimilation of students coming from various cultural backgrounds. The cell also conducted many online activities like celebration of different festivals, Kabeer Jayanti so on and so forth to promote Indian culture. Abhinavgupt Institute of Aesthetics and Shaiva Philosophy teaches Kashmir Shaivism and Aesthetics subjects in the postgraduate curriculum. The University is also offering Gharba Sanskar which mainly emphasizes on family planning and nutrition value to be taken by the pregnant women. With the implementation of NEP 2020, the University is planning to introduce online courses in the coming academic session to teach language and Indian culture.

20.Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):

The University religiously attempts to monitor the progress of learning outcomes through different mechanisms and adhere to revise and amend the syllabus to fill any such viable gaps. The components of the evaluative process are: The Head of the Department and faculty members periodically reviews program specific outcomes and course outcomes through interaction with students concerned. This is followed by a discussion with the teachers at the Departmental Committee meeting and finally in the meetings of the Board of Study (BoS) in a specific subject/department. The BoS comprises of faculty members statutorily empowered for inclusion and include external members of high academic integrity and ability from research institutes and/or other universities. The learning outcomes are achieved by developing ability to use latest ICT applications, software including specialized software and devices. Our courses also aim to develop personality of the students and in this, Department of Psychology and Happy thinking Lab is playing a vital role. To develop industry professionals, the University is offering professional courses like Engineering, Law, MCA, Journalism and Mass Communication, Management and Yoga. The courses are updated time to time in order to keep the students ready for upcoming challenges in this rapidly changing world and work environment. The process of evaluating the students' performance in different subjects in the Departments is undertaken from time to time during their field work assignments, participation in the interface programmes, conferences, seminar and workshops. The progress of learning outcomes is also measured through internal assessment and end-term examination performance. The departments change and update their syllabus from time to time with redefining the POs, PSOs and COs, if need be and then restructuring or changing the syllabus to suit the objectives. Departments also try to attain the course outcomes and program outcomes by conducting the activities such as cultural activities, N.S.S. Activities, National Cadet Corps programme, Career Counselling, Personality Lectures on Health Awareness Programs, Life Skills Development Program, adhering to the spirit of NEP 2020.

21.Distance education/online education:

Keeping in sync with the global movement to integrate educational resources and increase the ease of accessibility to them while harnessing the powers of the global revolution, University of Lucknow has designed an integrative interactive education portal named SLATE (Strategic Learning Application for Transformative Education). This application extends the classroom beyond the confines of the four walls and constraints of time and brings to the student the convenience of accessing resources, revisiting key points in lectures, exploring a wider range of resources, easy digital submission of assignments, digital tests, having 24 x 7 access to mentors, quick notices, enables time table based online classes, monitoring of student attendance and feedback mechanism, encourages and enables sharing of lectures on social media platforms for broader reach, has inbuilt webinar platform. University is offering online diploma course in Wildlife Journalism and shall be offering more online courses from coming academic session.

1.1 - Curriculum Design and Development
1.1.1 - Curricula developed and implemented have relevance to the local, national, regional and global developmental needs which is reflected in Programme outcomes (POs), Programme Specific Outcomes(PSOs) and Course Outcomes(COs) of the Programmes offered by the University
POs and PSOs remain the guiding principles in curriculum design, and with these in mind, COs and academic stratification lead to the development of curricula that are consistent with industry demands and social constraints. The multi-tiered system of curriculum development consists of (in order): A specialised study committee of the relevant department, which provides professional input on the current state of development of the discipline and industry requirements. The Faculty Council and the University Academic Council. The proposed curriculum will benefit from the broader perspective and viewpoint of the Academic Council and will be integrated into the curriculum. The University's Executive Council (EC) consists of academics, prominent citizens from all walks of life, and legal professionals. The EC is the highest governing body of the University and directs all aspects of University operations. The collective wisdom of the council members results in curricula that have been refined from an academic perspective and in accordance with the needs of society, industry and the country at large. Recent innovations include an elective-based credit system, electives, value-added courses, MOOCs, non-value-added courses, intra-departmental courses, inter-departmental courses, MOUs with non-governmental organisations, industry, central and governmental institutions at home and abroad.

2.2 - Catering to Student Diversity

2.2.1 - The institution assesses the learning levels of the students and organises special Programmes for advanced learners and slow learners

The University as a system has a clear realization that students would have different learning abilities and is sensitive to the need to address this situation at different levels as described below:

1. Teacher training: The need for assessing students unobtrusively and discreetly regarding their learning capabilities.
2. Quantitative results analysis: A centralized results analysis committee and result counseling committee are in place to identify gaps and further actions for students and faculty both.
3. Department/course level assessment: A general practice which is common to all the departments is that the system of internal assessment through mid-semester tests, assignment classroom discussions and presentations.
4. OPD programme: A unique initiative named 'Our pupils' day (OPD) is designed and to understand and resolve learning related problems of each student individually. The OPD is a platform for bidirectional exchange where the teacher and students co-evolve to create a better ecosystem for learning.
5. TREE programme and remedial teaching: The TREE (Teaching, Reaching, Emboldening, Empowering) programme is designed specifically for post-graduate students. Under this, every student is assigned a teacher mentor, who addresses the students' problems, qualitatively assesses the requirements and brings out the best.

2.3 - Teaching- Learning Process

2.3.1 - Student centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem-solving methodologies are used for enhancing learning experiences

.The entire teaching-learning system of the University is student-centric. Class-room teaching is interactive, promoting participative learning and encouraging two-way dialogue. Students are encouraged to reflect on critical issues and offer indigenous solutions. Varied participative teaching- learning practices which the departments undertake include seminars (individual and team based), presentations and discussions, quizzes, role-play, news, analysis, educational games, short projects, field survey-based assignments, research-based projects and internships..The departments also assign group or team-based project/assignment activity to develop the spirit of collaborative work and team spirit among the students. Faculty members are delivering their content through various innovative ways like case studies, empirical analysis of textbook theories and field visits. 4.Invited lectures by the experts and industry professionals..In the pure and allied science courses, all our courses at the UG as well as PG levels involve practical training for hands-on experience.Students are also given exposure to the various CSIR/ICAR/DST laboratories, and the researches being carried out there.The 'Cooperative Lending Library' is unique in its own way. It provides book to the students for a full session, so that students need not to deposit and get it issued again and again. Every department and institutes have their own YouTube channel,

2.3.2 - Teachers use ICT enabled tools including online resources for effective teaching and learning processes during the year

All the departments of the University have ICT enabled classrooms. Majority of them have smart classrooms too. The ICT enabled teaching includes, LCD/LED projectors, interactive digital projection board, e-learning resources as well as Wi-Fi access to institutional intranet and the vast library and INFLIBNET resources that come with them. The university also has the virtual a classroom facility that enables specialists of the field to lecture from a remote location in India or abroad. 2.The departments use massive online open courses (MOOCs) developed by the MHRD, New Delhi through NPTEL and Swayam.gov.in portals. Teachers also encourage students to use the MIT open courseware, IGNOU e-content, e-pathshala, inflibnet and other similar platforms to access additional resources along with the suggested text books and reference materialsThe students can access the e-catalog of the library from anywhere through the university website. Students also have easy access to journals and a plethora of e-resources from the central library. Several teachers have created WhatsApp group of their class through which they keep sharing their short videos, additional reading material which cannot be accessed by the students in general, ebooks, etc.

Examination Procedures Unique roll number is allotted to students at the time of admission itself. Four sets of each paper are set (examiner names come from the departmental Board of Studies) and randomly anyone is selected for the main examination. Each college has been allotted a particular code for the purpose of administrative and examination purposes. Similarly, each course and paper has also been granted a unique code for easy identification and tracking. Full automation of submission of examination forms, examination fee, selection of options and downloading of admit card. This is all done through one student login id which is created at the time of admission. Through this login id students manage their admission, re-admission, examination and re-examination and result activities. Availability of exam schedule on the University website for wider information Each student is allotted a particular seat in a given particular room/examination hall which keeps on changing paper to paper. CCTV cameras are mandatory for examination centers. Continuous monitoring is undertaken during the examination. Apart from the main proctorial team, additional faculty members are deputed to keep continuous vigil from center to center. Copies are collected on the same of day examination from each college to a central evaluation center. Copies thus received are coded with the barcodes.

2.6 - Student Performance and Learning Outcomes

2.6.1 - The institution has stated learning outcomes (generic and programme specific)/graduate attributes which are integrated into the assessment process and widely publicized through the website and other documents

All the courses of the University (UG, PG, Certificate, Diploma, M.Phil. courses) have well defined learning outcomes (generic and specific). The generic classification of learning outcomes can be as: first, development of logic and argument building ability; second, development of personality and personal traits; third, development of professionalism, and; fourth, development of ethical and social traits.

Development of logic and argument building ability

The learning outcome is achieved by developing ability to use latest ICT applications, software including specialized software and devices. Our course curriculums also try to develop ability to learn and work independently and have an unaccompanied competence as a decision maker.

Development of personality and personal traits Leadership, time management and management of emotions at work are additional personal traits which are also being inculcated among students through our courses. Development of professionalism Professionalism in work is a one of the most required elements to bring desired outcome and our courses are committed to develop professionalism into our students. The professionalism enables students to understand need of the society, economy and the enterprise. It incentivizes the students to acquire the required soft skills like managing people, developing self-reliance. The courses are updated time to time in order to keep the students the ready for upcoming challenges in this rapidly changing world and work environment.

Development of social and ethical trait

RESEARCH, INNOVATIONS AND EXTENSION

3.1 - Promotion of Research and Facilities

3.1.1 - The institution Research facilities are frequently updated and there is well defined policy for promotion of research which is uploaded on the institutional website and implemented

The research quality and quantity is promoted through capacity generation for advanced research with re-equipping the labs and simultaneously building competency among faculty and research students. 1.Equipment and facilities: Departments have upgraded equipment and labs to facilitate extant research using grants under DST PURSE, DST FIST, Centre of Excellence and other research projects. The Department of Botany upgraded its research facilities in the Central Instrumentation Facility, acquired high resolution microscopes, instruments were procured for molecular research work such as Electrophoresis Unit, Centrifuges, Spinix Vortex shaker. Many other instruments have also been added to Central Instrumentation Facility, The Department of Biochemistry added Orbital Shaker Incubator, Biosafety Cabinet BSL-2, High Performance Liquid Chromatography System, Cooling High Speed Centrifuge, Laboratory Refrigerators, Microscopes, Colorimeters, Spectrophotometers, Laminar Flow, High-tech Polyhouse Facility. The Department of Physics build on High Performance Computing facilities. The Department of Chemistry purchased 300 MHz NMR spectrometer and FT-IR spectrometer from the DST-PURSE programme, UV-Vis spectrophotometer, Fluorescence Spectrophotometer and Ultra Cryostat circulatory chiller.

3.3 - Innovation Ecosystem

3.3.1 - Institution has created an eco-system for innovations including Incubation centre and other initiatives for creation and transfer of knowledge

These centers are designed at the moment to provide support to researchers, entrepreneurs and startups via providing them with a material testing lab, web designing lab, computer coding, high throughput computing, etc. Other than these, the centres also conduct regular workshops and training programmes to train and encourage entrepreneurial skills. The management departments of the university also play a role in the incubation centres by providing much needed management and entrepreneurial skills via training to budding startups. We also continuously encourage, update, train and facilitate our faculty and other innovators in society in the process of creation and transfer of knowledge via regular training and awareness programs about Intellectual Property Rights and providing support mechanisms for those seeking to file patents. It is the aim of our incubation centre to encourage technology based entrepreneurship and facilitate practical application of knowledge for public use. In view of an exciting start, the University hopes to further add more such support centres for innovators and entrepreneurs. Other than this we are working towards the addition of an incubator centre under the Atal Innovation Mission of the Govt. of India. Govt of Uttar Pradesh is promoting the establishment of incubator centres via this scheme across the state, in each district.

3.6.1 - Extension activities in the neighbourhood community in terms of impact and sensitising students to social issues and holistic development during the year

Owing to these humble beginnings as well as our mission, we have always given back and continue to give back to the society in general and neighbourhood community in particular. The University of Lucknow has well established NSS and NCC wings have held sensitization programmes on issues like Swachh Bharat, Voter Awareness, Awareness of fundamental rights and duties, Padhe Lucknow, Badhe Lucknow. Our students regularly hold cleanliness drives of localities as well as of River Gomti. The University of Lucknow regularly holds blood donation camps and trains the community in disaster management and preparedness especially for natural calamities like floods and earthquakes. sensitization drives, lecture series, nukkadnataks, etc., in the community on social issues such as social discrimination, gender discrimination, women empowerment, rape, marital rape, LGBTQ rights, AIDS stigma, and many others. Rubaroo, the official university band, regularly holds concerts at metro stations, cafes and other social places with songs on social issues. In addition to these they also regularly conduct awareness drives on multiple legal issues that are aimed at clearing common misconceptions. We continuously work towards sensitizing our own students and the community about global climate change and wildlife depletion. Through our extension activities, the University of Lucknow has encouraged the setting up of Vulture restaurants across the country. Our science faculty regularly publishes popular science articles to bring about awareness about complex scientific issues. Our Psychology department provides counselling support. Our Journalism and Mass Communication department holds pod casts, blogs, and makes films on social issues..

INFRASTRUCTURE AND LEARNING RESOURCES

4.1 - Physical Facilities

4.1.1 - The institution has adequate facilities for teaching - learning. viz., classrooms, laboratories, computing equipment, etc.

Departments have computer laboratories equipped with advanced computing software and central networking systems to enhance analytical approach among students. Apart from that, necessary computing equipment like computing packages are bought and updated as per requirement. University continuously upgrades its laboratories and equipment and provides ample supplies for students to conduct laboratory experiments. University has a separate computer center, which looks after availability of computers and Internet access in each department for hassle free learning and teaching. Department of English has a specifically designed English communications lab, which caters to special requirements of students to express them in a better way. Apart from departmental laboratories, there is ONGC building for augmenting multidisciplinary research equipped with seminar halls and rooms allocated to various departments for combined use and imparting science education. University also has well-developed green houses, animal house to give real-world learning experience to students. University also has mass communication and media lab equipped with necessary tools so that students can turn their ideas into films and short stories. University has been continuously looking after facilities for teaching learning as per minimum specified requirement by statutory body that is UGC and all India council of technical education. University is also a well- designed administrative building with ICT enabled conference rooms and computer enabled chambers for advanced functioning of system.

4.1.2 - The institution has adequate facilities for cultural activities, yoga, games (indoor, outdoor) and sports. (gymnasium, yoga centre, auditorium, etc.)

The university has safe and clean NCC changing rooms for girls, which facilitates and encourages participation of girls into NCC activities. The common rooms for girls are equipped with indoor games like chess, carom board and table tennis. The university also has delegacy buildings in both campuses to provide various indoor games, extra curricular activities to the day boarding students of the institution. The delegacies provide an open environment to share knowledge, practice sports as well as to conduct socially vital activities for a better understanding of surrounding society. For development of healthy mind and soul university encourages practice of Yoga in day-to-day life for teachers, non-teaching staff and the students altogether. University has a yoga practice center and faculty of yoga for the students and faculty The cultural activity board, Sanskritiki, conducts cultural events all over the year in university. The university has Arts Quadrangle, which is in the centre of beautifully architected arts faculty building. There are two open stages where cultural and extra curricular activities like open air theatre, nukkad nataks are conducted which encourages open expression of students and freedom to be themselves to bring out the better person within. The university has a central auditorium, the Malviya Hall, which is provided to the students for hassle free conduction of cultural events.

4.2 - Library as a Learning Resource

4.2.1 - Library is automated using Integrated Library Management System (ILMS) and has digitisation facility

The library contains more than ten thousand of full text electronic journals and databases which are made available to research community of the University through inflibnet website (<https://www.inflibnet.ac.in/universitydirectory/dsearch.php>) or publisher's web sites directly since 2004. Library has also purchased SOUL software from the Inflibnet Centre, Gandhinagar in 2014 for data conversion of its collection and automating its activities. The library provides remote access to e-books and journals enabling extended access of books to the students everywhere and anywhere. With collaboration of MHRD, Tagore library has provided easy access to e-ShodhSindhu which supports current as well as archival access to more than 15,000 core and peer-reviewed journals and a number of bibliographic, citation and factual databases in different disciplines from a large number of publishers and aggregators to its member institutions including centrally-funded technical institutions, universities and colleges that are covered under 12(B) and 2(f) Sections of the UGC Act. As a part of its ICT activities, Library established E-resource centre in the year 2008 with 50 computers connected with Internet to provide online services of eShodhSindhu for its research scholars and PG students. As an extension of Tagore library, Cyber library has been established with 538 functioning computer systems for researchers.

4.3.2 - Institution has an IT policy, makes appropriate budgetary provision and updates its IT facilities including Wi-Fi facility

The institution has internet facility provided through National Knowledge network line. All the departments of the university in both the campuses are connected through optical fiber network. The internet facility is available to the faculty in all the departments through this network and students can access internet in the library and computer centre. They can also have access to this wired internet facility through to various departmental computer Labs. In addition to that University has also developed an e-learning facility in the cyber lab developed at the central library of the university. Students can access e-resources provided by University E - portal and INFLIBNET facility. Recently University has gone for Wi-Fi facility throughout the campus, this facility has been provided by Reliance under CSR. The Wi-Fi network is available throughout the campus and the student's faculty and employees can access this facility. The university has well defined information policy, which clearly defines what sensitive information is within the organization and how that information should be protected. Policy covers all information within the organization as an asset. Each employee is responsible for protecting sensitive information that comes into employee's possession. Information can be in the form of paper records or electronic files. It has been taken both into account.

An alumni felicitation ceremony was organized by LU Alumni foundation and Lifetime Achievements Awards were conferred on our Illustrious alumni. The Alumni Foundation will be focusing on the advising and career planning needs of present students of the university. For this purpose, the foundation has made efforts to set up a resourceful alumni network via almaconnect\(https://lkouniv.almaconnect.com/\) to shape the career preparation for our students by providing them mentoring, coaching and internship opportunities. A governing body has been constituted that plans to host different programs to achieve this aim. An online portal of the Alumni Foundation has been designed which highlights activities of the foundation. This portal includes the convenience of getting online membership of LUAF using electronic payment methods. The alumni may also donate funds for the foundation using this portal.: Alumni Cell: Lucknow University : (lkouniv.in) Lucknow University Alumni Foundation 13.07.2022 got registered under trust deed w.e.f. vide registration number IV-630/2022

GOVERNANCE, LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT

6.1 - Institutional Vision and Leadership

6.1.1 - The institution has a clearly stated vision and mission which are reflected in its academic and administrative governance

University of Lucknow's Vision and Mission Statements read as follows: VISION STATEMENT reads "To develop human resource for furtherance of knowledge through teaching, research and innovation and ranked amongst the top educational institutions of the world for the better service to the humanity in general and our nation in particular." And the MISSION STATEMENT is, "To be a University driven by values enriched with diverse cultures, to promote economic, social and spiritual advancement for an egalitarian society." Institutional Vision and leadership are imbued in the values and participative decision-making processes at the University of Lucknow. These are vital not only to achieve the mission and goals of the institution but also to build the organizational culture. To sum up, the University of Lucknow has a deep academic acumen with a responsive and responsible administrative machinery, sensitive to the demands of time. Both the Vision and Mission statements are deeply thought out statements drawn from great wisdom and are not subject to frequent change. However, the way they have to be perceived and implemented does change as paradigms shift. The University of Lucknow is fully geared to affect these changes for the benefit of its students and society at large.

6.1.2 - The effective leadership is reflected in various institutional practices such as decentralization and participative management

The decentralized processes operate at two fundamental levels as follows: Level 1: The Executive Council delegates all the academic and operational decisions based on University policy to the various Monitoring Committees headed by the Vice Chancellor in order to fulfil the vision and mission of the University. The various Academic Committees formulate common working procedures and entrust the implementation of the same with the faculty members. Level 2: Faculty members are given representation in various committees and allowed to conduct various programs to showcase their abilities. They are encouraged to develop leadership skills by being put in charge of various academic, co-curricular, extracurricular activities. The Faculty are given autonomy to conduct educational and industrial tours and to forge collaborations with industry experts. Some are also appointed as Coordinators and Conveners for organizing seminars/conferences/workshops/FDP's etc. . Strategic level: The Principals of affiliated colleges, academic coordinators of various programmes in the University, Faculty members and administrative heads such as Registrar and Finance Officer, are all involved in evolving policies and procedures, framing guidelines and rules and regulations pertaining to admissions, placement, discipline, grievance, counselling, training and development and library services etc. and effectively implementing the same to ensure smooth and systematic functioning of the University.

6.2 - Strategy Development and Deployment

6.2.1 - The institutional Strategic plan is effectively deployed

Successful Implementation of Online Admission Process: The University has achieved an online admission process. This process has also made it possible to fight the onslaught of pandemics. This a strategic activity of the University, successfully implemented. It has resulted in better visibility and greater transparency. The process also resulted in significant savings of time as well as human resource. The University has offices like the Student Welfare, International Students Office, Proctor Office, IPPR centre, Planning and Development Board, College Development Council and others in its formal structure. These offices employ the powers and autonomy they are vested with for regular as well contingent needs. The strategic plans are the product of entirely democratic processes. The goals and objectives of the institution are determined after due discussion in various bodies. These are grounded in the education policy of the state, more recently within the ambit of the NEP-2020, and customized as per the requirements of the University and the population it caters to. Such changes are usually communicated from the apex leadership, i.e. the Honb'le Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor and discussed with representatives of various Departments. This forms a comprehensive image of the issues and leads to a complete plan.

6.2.2 - The functioning of the institutional bodies is effective and efficient as visible from policies, administrative setup, appointment and service rules, procedures, etc.

The organizational structure of the University including governing body, administrative setup, and functions of various bodies, service rules, procedures, recruitment, promotional policies as well as grievance redressal mechanisms are well documented and a transparent system exhibits it on the website.

The Executive Council (EC) is the highest decision-making body of the University with the ViceChancellor as it's chairperson.

The Students Welfare office has a full-fledged structure, headed by a Dean who looks after the affairs of the students' progression.

The Registrar's Office: The statutory person-in-charge of all records and administrative head of all employees, excluding the teaching faculty, is the Registrar.

Admission Cell: The University has an admission cell that is responsible for fair and smooth conduct of the admission process.

The Proctor Office is a full-fledged structure charged with the responsibility of on-campus law and order, maintaining discipline, and other security-related issues. .

The College Development Council looks at improving the standards of education in the associated colleges of the University to bring them in line with the education delivery at par with the university standards.

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell continually looks at improving the standards of the University's academic delivery. It functions to align the administrative and academic structures of the institution to create a state of the art educational delivery and assessment mechanism

6.4 - Financial Management and Resource Mobilization

6.4.1 - Institutional strategies for mobilisation of funds and the optimal utilisation of resources

Various sources of funds are the Alumni, Corporate Social Responsibility Fund, Central Government schemes, and the State Government schemes.

Apart from the regular funding the University receives from the U.P. State Govt. the University has been the recipient of extremely generous, performance-linked funding from Central and State Government agencies like the UGC, DST and DBT under various schemes of these agencies. Some of the major contributors are as follows: UGC: Special assistance, COSIST and Advanced Center programmes awarded to various departments DST: FIST and PURSE programmes awarded to various departments in the Faculty of Science DBT: Countrywide programme of M.Sc Biotechnology, fully sponsored by the DBT, Establishment of Advanced Center for Bioinformatics. UP-CST: Centers of Excellence awarded to various departments Financial assistance from all of these agencies has been recurrently received strictly based on the excellent academic performance of the University of Lucknow and the financial rigor exercised in utilization and accounting of funds. The funding mentioned above is over and above that received by various members of the teaching faculty as personal projects.

6.4.4 - Institution conducts internal and external financial audits regularly

The University of Lucknow is a State University; hence it complies with all the financial rules laid down by the UP Government. It has adopted standard practices for conducting internal and external financial audits. It has its own Finance Officer appointed by the State Government, and has its own internal auditors. In addition, the University adheres to the standard practice of appointing external auditors for external audits as per the rules of the government. The University endeavors to get all the projects and expenditures audited internally. This practice has yielded rich dividends in excellent compliance reports during the external audit and in receiving recurrent grants from funding agencies.

6.5 - Internal Quality Assurance System

6.5.1 - Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) has contributed significantly for institutionalizing the quality assurance strategies and processes by constantly reviewing the teaching learning process, structures & methodologies of operations and learning outcomes at periodic intervals

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell of the University is actively involved in the various awareness activities among students, employees and faculty. The strategy of the cell revolves around academics with students, employees and faculty members. A very ambitious scheme by the name of "Building Opportunities for Original and Sustainable Thinking (BOOST), a conglomeration of three important schemes, has recently been initiated and implemented by IQAC.

The three schemes under BOOST are: 1. ACCLAIM Incentivization Policy: University of Lucknow (UoL) has always supported and promoted the research activities and achievements of its Faculty, who continuously strive to elevate UoL's research credentials. For this, the University, in addition to its other research promotion schemes, has constituted a policy to laud teachers whose academic achievements have received recognition in State, National and International forums via recognition/awards.

2. PROTSAHAN

. UoL has a practice of providing seed money to faculty members by sharing overhead grants of sanctioned projects

3. UDDEEPAN Best Research Paper Award: The UoL has started a scheme of rewarding research scholars and faculty members involved in research activity.

The IQAC inculcates quality awareness and fosters a culture in the system by holding extensive activities to mark various important events like Earth Day, Anti-tobacco Day, Science Day etc. The IQAC has conducted various activities relevant to the overall quality enhancement process of the University for students, faculty and employees of the university

6.5.3 - Incremental improvements made for the preceding during the year with regard to quality (in case of first cycle) Post accreditation quality initiatives(second and subsequent cycles)

1. The University has taken up intensive efforts like workshops and interactive sessions to accomplish the same and has been successful in implementing the choice-based credit system (CBCS) in the University.
2. IQAC is constantly taking up workshops with Deans of the various Faculties, and Heads of Departments, as well as teachers and is reaching up to the Departments in order to accomplish this objective.
3. The University has initiated assignment presentation and mid-semester evaluation as a part of continuous evaluation, it has improved its online platform for the student feedback and financial and administrative autonomy is being extended through committees as per acts and statute respectively.
4. Efforts have been made in this direction by approaching the State Government, industry and other funding agencies and the University has procured 142 Research projects, 30 research Centers of Excellence and other SAP and FIST programmes. In addition, the University is conducting a green audit for its buildings, and more as attached.

INSTITUTIONAL VALUES AND BEST PRACTICES

7.1 - Institutional Values and Social Responsibilities

7.1.1 - Measures initiated by the Institution for the promotion of gender equity during the year

Women's Equality a lack of glass ceilings: The university ensures that men and women are equally represented and participate in academic and administrative endeavors at all levels. The Institute of Women Studies, a distinct division of the organization, was founded in 1997. It provides two-year Post-Graduate programs that lead to Women's Studies Master's degrees.

Other departments include Economics, Sociology, Social Safety, and Security; guards are present at all entry points and the dorms for female students. The entire campus is well-lit. The institution has a grievance redressal cell, an internal complaints committee, a sexual harassment cell that has been duly established at both the central and departmental levels, and a gender sensitization (GenSen) cell. Counseling: The institution has launched an innovative program called "Our Pupil's Day" (OPD) in which it is required that every faculty member from every department be available to students for at least an hour each week for counseling. Additionally, the institution has launched a Mentor Mentee program called TREE that aims to use faculty members' academic and professional experience to nurture, empower, and assist students.

Hazardous chemicals and radioactive waste management

Solid Waste management-The University employs its own personnel to collect waste from the designated location, separate it, recycle it, and dispose of it in government-approved landfills. The university has composite pits where vermi compost is made and used as manure in the campus's plantation.

Liquid Waste management: Laboratory and canteen effluent waste is how the institution generates liquid waste. The garbage is placed into a sizable bag and dewatered using this technique. The solid garbage is subsequently dumped in a government-designated land fill after the water has been removed.

E-Waste management-Memory chips, motherboards, CDs, and cartridges produced by electronic devices including computers, TVs, printers, fax machines, and photocopiers are appropriately recycled. All surplus electronic equipment from the University of Lucknow, including computers and computer peripherals, is sent to the Director of the Computer Center/E-Waste Management team, which decides whether to donate the equipment to nearby schools as recommended by the advisory committee, sell it as per university policy, or recycle it.

7.1.8 - Describe the Institutional efforts/initiatives in providing an inclusive environment i.e. tolerance and harmony towards cultural, regional, linguistic, communal, socio-economic and other diversities (within a maximum of 200 words)

As biodiversity is for nature, so is cultural diversity for humanity. Diverse cultures not only strengthen and inspire creativity in civilizations, but they also enable people to adapt to societal change more successfully. The university's slogan is to promote cultural inclusivity and diversity, which aids in bringing together students, faculty, and staff who are multilingual, practise a variety of religions, follow a variety of traditions, and hold a variety of values.

The University, in letter and spirit, has adopted a non-discriminatory stance towards all, offering everyone adequate access to facilities and the freedom to dress however they choose in order to combat social exclusion and marginalisation. The option for anybody to conduct prayers during business hours is a distinctive aspect of campus tolerance that should be encouraged. Additionally, the faculty and students say Friday prayers together at a designated location (Lal Baradari) on campus.

7.2 - Best Practices

7.2.1 - Describe one best practice successfully implemented by the Institution as per NAAC format provided in the Manual

Title of the FIRST Practice: CO-OPERATIVE LENDING LIBRARY (CLL)

Objectives of the Practice: The State Government established a cooperative lending library during the academic year 1966-1967 to provide books to underprivileged students for the duration of the term, with volumes being returned only after final exams. The goal was to allow four books to each student per session, which they would have to return after the exam, but as time went on, it became difficult to distinguish between wealthy and poor students, and C.L.L. accepted that it had to accommodate the students as much as its resources allowed. Every Undergraduate and Postgraduate student who paid their C.L.L. membership fees at the cashier's office and presented their receipt at the C.L.L. Registration Counter will now get a textbook from the organisation.

Title of Second Practice: LUCKNOW UNIVERSITY TEACHER'S CO-OPERATIVE BANK

Objectives of the Practice: To extend credit to its members at a rate that is less expensive than the going rate of interest on all loans. The Lucknow University Teachers' Co-operative Bank was established to provide financial assistance to its members in times of need.

7.3 - Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 - Highlight the performance of the institution in an area distinct to its priority and thrust (within a maximum of 200 words)

Since its foundation in 1920, the University of Lucknow has always been a student-focused institution offering a wide variety of courses in many different fields. This is supported by the diverse array of programmes it offers, which cover everything from the most recent advances in science and technology to programmes in Sanskrit and Persian for eastern studies. To meet the academic needs of the 16365 students enrolled in the University, 49 departments and 17 institutes are used to achieve this diversity. The University of Lucknow, a student-focused institution, is a social influencer. The departments have made the university look good by preparing students for the competitive world and by being able to offer quality education at a reasonable price that draws the best students from all social groups. The syllabus is regularly changed, and there is a system in place for collecting student feedback. The administration's efficiency and good leadership foster a welcoming environment for students on campus. The requirements of the students are attended by a system of student assistance that includes a fully functional office of the Dean of Students Welfare. For the convenience of the students, there are services and facilities like a pharmacy, an ambulance service, banks, and the Divyangjan Canteen on campus.

7.3.2 - Plan of action for the next academic year

Future Plans of Actions for Next Academic Year

1. To improve NIRF ranking.
2. To prepare for extension of NEP.
3. To formulate PG and UG syllabus based on NEP.
4. To improve global and national rankings.
5. Effort to get more funds for the university.
6. To establish more interdisciplinary institutes for enhancement of research
7. To improve physical and academic infrastructure.
