Sanskritiki organizes Women Empowerment and Career Opportunities in Gender Studies

Sanskritiki Organizes Program on Women Empowerment, Garbh Sanskar Career Opportunities in Gender Studies

Lucknow, 12/04/2023 – The Sanskritiki, University of Lucknow, organized a program on ‘Women Empowerment and Career Opportunities in Gender Studies’ on 12th April, 2023 at University of Lucknow. The program aimed to create awareness about the importance of women empowerment and the various opportunities available to students for their professional growth in the field of Gender Studies. The event included a street play and information about various enterprising courses with assured placement being run by the institute.

The street play, performed by Adamyia, highlighted the challenges faced by women in society and importance of education for women in breaking down gender stereotypes. The play was briefed Falak & Prashant. The event was also graced by Prof. Madhurima Lal, Director, Sanskritiki, University of Lucknow, who enlightened the audience members about how women empowerment is not just a moral issue, but an existential issue for civilization. Dr. Manini Srivastav, who is the Coordinator of Sanskritiki, informed students about the courses being run by the Institute, which includes M.A. in Women Studies, and Diploma course in Garbha Sanskar. These courses are designed to equip students with the necessary skills and knowledge to not only secure a job availing assured placement, but also provide students with a deeper understanding of gender issues and their impact on society. A course in Women's Studies can provide a deeper understanding of gender issues, critical thinking and analysis skills, empowerment, intersectionality, and career opportunities in fields like advocacy and social work. It can help individuals become aware of their biases and navigate complexities of gender and sexuality, while also providing knowledge of social justice issues. Employers value the critical thinking and social justice knowledge gained through Women's Studies courses.

Programs like this help to create awareness and encourage people to take action towards empowering women. The Institute of Women Studies is committed to women's empowerment and provides women with the necessary resources to achieve their goals. The program was a huge success, and the institute received a lot of positive feedback from the attendees.
