Sanskritiki Organizes Program on Women Empowerment, Garbh Sanskar Career Opportunities in Gender Studies

Lucknow, 20/04/2023 – The Sanskritiki, University of Lucknow, organized a program on ‘Women Empowerment and Career Opportunities in Gender Studies’ on 20th April, 2023 at University of Lucknow, Lucknow. In this program Dr. Manini Srivastav, the Coordinator of Sanskritiki addressed the gathering on women related issues. Prof. Madhurima Lal, Director of Sanskritiki also blessed the occasion. The principal Dr. Anshu Kedia and other faculty members were present at the occasion. The program aimed to create awareness about the importance of women empowerment and the various opportunities available to students for their professional growth in the field of Gender Studies. The event included a street play and information about various enterprising courses with assured placement being run by the institute.

Programs like this help to create awareness and encourage people to act towards empowering women. The Institute of Women Studies is committed to women's empowerment and provides women with the necessary resources to achieve their goals. The program was a huge success, and the institute received a lot of positive feedback from the attendees.
